WITNESS STATEMENT
Statement of: Mrs Ayesha Rahman
Statement No: 1
Date: 3 August 2026

I, AYESHA RAHMAN, of 7 Cedar Close, Leicester LE2 4PQ, Account Manager, WILL SAY AS FOLLOWS:

1. I make this statement in support of my application for non-molestation and occupation orders against my husband, Tariq Rahman.
2. We were married on 14 February 2012. There are three children of the family: Hana (11), Idris (8) and baby Sumayyah (aged 1).
3. Tariq has been violent towards me since 2019. On 30 July 2026 he threw a plate at me and then dragged me by my hair across the living room. I was very scared. My neighbour called the police and the police log number is LEI/4412/26.
4. I have photographs of my injuries and a letter from my doctor.
5. I need to ask that he be excluded from the house as I fear for my safety and the children's safety.
6. I ask for the order to be made without notice because I am worried he will become more violent if he knows I am applying.

STATEMENT OF TRUTH
I believe that the facts stated in this witness statement are true.
